

Matrixline⁺

all of them, one of a kind!

Matrixline⁺

one of a kind!

This line of genetically short Asiatic pot lilies is unique.

All the Matrix varieties are genetically the same, so when you plant them anywhere in the world, on the same time and similar conditions, they can bloom together!

The + is for Buzzer which is a genetic short variety that has the same plant and forcing time as the Matrixline.

Making your work easier!
